LOCATED IN SOUTH MINNEAPOLIS, TILT IS A FULL ON PINBALL EXPERIENCE.

CITY PAGES WINNER: "BEST NEW BAR"
2018 & "BEST HOT DOG" 2019

Since 2017, TILT has been offering up a unique collection of pinball machines for players to enjoy. We pride ourselves on a selection of well-maintained machines from a variety of eras. We keep our lineup fresh by rotating machines in and out, whether it's a brand new game out of the box, or a classic from the archive.

A menu of specialty hot dogs, sandwiches and tacos, made from scratch. A thoughtfully curated list of local beer and craft cocktails. A friendly staff of pinball enthusiasts, committed to great service. There are plenty of reasons to visit TILT Pinball Bar, and we look forward to seeing you!

Like it's even a question at this point: Of COURSE we've got Foo Fighters on order!

As with most Stern releases, the Pro version will likely ship first, so expect that shortly after shipping is announced, The LE version should follow a few weeks to a month later.

We are absolutely going to throw a launch party, and have verbal confirmation of a special guest joining us as well. Stay tuned for more info!... See more

The February Women's Monthly Tournament had another great turnout, with 27 competitors, including a couple of ladies who had never played in this tournament before! We love to see new players showing up!

After 9 exciting rounds, Lisa McGrath won against Elizabeth Boelke on Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, and Sam Arnold took 3rd after a match on Rick and Morty in Round 8. Kaitlyn Schick rounded out our top spots, finishing in 4th place. Congratulations to the winners, and thank.. See more Fresh code from Stern for Bond and Godzilla!

Bond adds a new "Trouble in Jamaica" villain mode, new Insider Connect achievements, and tweaks to multiball modes that make it easier to know what's what and who's who.

Godzilla's update is minor in comparison but finally allows you to skip some additional animations and adds a few things that make our tech's lives easier.... See more We're geekin' pretty hard over the latest Flyland Designs alternate translite for Theatre of Magic.

As you can see, we're a big fan of Brian Allen's work as we've upgraded all of the Chicago Gaming Remakes already. Plus we've got his alternates ready for Fish Tales and Arabian Nights ready to rock as well.

Which do you prefer, the OG graphics or the updates? Which game would you most like to see a Flyland Designs version on? See more Here we thought there might be a low turnout for Winter League kickoff due to the "you could die of exposure" temps... Nope!

Lots of new players came by, and we also saw our largest turnout of players in our competitive bracket - 35!

We'll get rolling by giving props to this winter season's first 20+ point scorers last night... See more

Round 1 of our weekly Winter Pinball League starts TONIGHT at 7pm!
This season runs every Tuesday from January 31st to March 14th, 'cept for Valentine's day.

If you've never played competitive pinball before YOU NEED TO COME
TRY THIS OUT. Recreational league is free to enter, and competitive league (in which winners get cash prizes and you earn IFPA points) is only $20.

Because this is the first week, pleeeeeeease show up a little earlier than usual to get signed up so we... See more

Welcome back!

Our 2023 tournament season kicked off with a banger of a turnout; Over 60 of you braved the cold to battle for over $300 in cash and those sweet, sweet IFPA points. Lots of new faces last night, so a big thank you for coming out to all you regulars for showing them the ropes ❤️

Congrats to the top 4 -- ... See more

The January Women's Monthly Tournament had another record turnout, with 31 players, including 5 ladies who had never played in this tournament before! What a way to kick off 2023!

After 9 exciting rounds, Brocke Tousignant won against Rebecca Sunde on James Bond 007, and Elizabeth Boelke took 3rd after a match on Godzilla in Round 8. Congratulations to the winners, and thanks to the awesome participants for a super fun night!

You may have walked into TILT at one point and had to double check the address after you saw dollar bills laying on top of the machines.

No, your Uber driver didn't pull a fast one on you. This is likely some of players enjoying a game of Tommy Dollar.

What is Tommy Dollar you ask? It's a way to spice up a game with friends and maybe win some cash out of the deal. The premise is each player strategically places a dollar bill somewhere on the glass to hide a certain part of... See more

Just a gentle reminder that all games at TILT Pinball Bar use QUARTERS. Not old TILT tokens, and certainly not tokens from other arcades.

These jam up our coin mechs and can render a game inoperable, which leads to lots of effort and swearing from our technicians. Thanks

Cactus Canyon LE is here! This latest remake from Chicago Gaming Company ups the ante on the original Cactus Canyon with a brand new shootout mode using the topper as an interactive part of the game.

To activate this mode, you need to hit the beer mug ten times, and then make sure you're looking up to use the LEDs on the topper to aim for the bad guys (NOT THE CIVILIANS) and take your shot.

A bunch of other design elements makes this game pop, and it is a welcome addition ... See more

UPDATED WITH CORRECT SCORES (third time's the charm, amirite?)

Week 5 is a wrap!

The final round is going to be a battle as usual because y'all are so damn scrappy. And then you've got cats like Eric Fryc throwing down 1.78 ball 1 in Game of Thrones just because he can. Bring your A game for the finals. Or bring some cash for those side bets.... See more

There are going to be some extra happy kids over the holidays this year, thanks to you! We got a bunch of boxes of toys and over $300 from the translite raffle that will be brought over to the Groveland Food Shelf this week.

The December pinball tournament / James Bond release party brought out 72 players to grab some final IFPA points for the year, and congratulations to the top 5:

We're baaaaaaack! Holiday League kicks off tonight at 7pm. Indeed beer specials for all!

PLEASE arrive early for check-in (like, 6:30 early) so we can get started on time. If you think you might be arriving a few minutes past 7 let one of your homies/homettes know so they can get you registered.

And remember - everyone gets a drop week so just in case you can't make tonight you still have a solid chance at victory in the remaining weeks.... See more Normally by week three in the league, we get some falloff of players, and things calm down. But y'all are faaaar from normal.

We had even more players than in opening week! A record eight new folks coming to hang out and based on the smiles all around you made them feel super welcome. THANK YOU!

Fall League round 3 tonight! Are you ready?

Come early, get some practice games in, and get checked in so we can start as close to 7 as possible. If you think you're going to show up after 7 please let one of your compadres know and have them check you in.

(Otherwise we have to re-do the groups after games get started and some schmuck has to yell at all of you while standing on a stool and he doesn't like that)... See more

NEW GAME ARRIVAL!

Johnny Mnemonic is here in all of it's 90's glory. This might be THE most 1995 game ever, not just because it's a Williams with lots of cool features, but it also is covered with words like "CyberMatrix" and "Dataglove" and even has dialup noises! HACK THE GIBSO--oops wrong movie, sorry.

In all seriousness though, the game modes are pretty easy to follow, and the player-controlled magnetic Dataglove is a unique game function that ultimately makes up for a ... See more

The Hand is brilliant. It perfectly intermissions the fast pace of the lower play field. I walked out of this movie when it was in the cinemas. But the pinball is a seriously cool game.

#shopsunday brings you an update on Johnny Mnemonic.

The cabinet interior has been retouched, and playfield reassembly has begun. Zach hand cut all-new mylar, and this game is starting to look factory-new.

Why put this much time into a mid-90s game based on a sci-fi B movie that many of our customers have likely never seen? Because we can, that's why! Less than 3,000 of these were made, and we believe all 90's era Williams games need to be preserved. Plus, this game has a... See more

Huge thanks to everyone who came out last night - all 74 of you! Your early arrival to check in was much appreciated; we were hitting the flippers by 7:15 which might be the earliest we've started in quite a while. Let's keep that going for next week!

Congrats to the following players that came out swinging, each scoring over 20 points in the first round:...

Holy S#$%! You all turned UP last night! 73 of you came out to play, and lots of you brought friends because we had a record turnout of new players as well. This is a big deal for Minnesota competitive pinball in general. The more new players that join, the better chance we get for an even larger state tournament.

Congrats to the top 4:

2nd Place - Mark Larson... See more

Oops- we are long overdue for a #whatthepin Wednesday.

This should be a hard one, as the game itself wasn't made in that large of a volume and there are less than 100 out in the wild (according to Pinballmap at least).

We just picked this one up, so it's not part of our existing stock which is the only clue you get apart from this fairly unique arrangement of coils... See more

Our monthly Women's tournament kicks off at 7pm tomorrow and it's FREE! (Betcha didn't realize tomorrow is the 3rd Thursday in September already...)

This is a great place to try out some competitive pinball, help grow our community of players, and maybe even win some prizes. Come by a little before 7pm, check in with Krista or Brooke (hanging out by the laptop), and grab a drink special from Pries.

See you tomorrow ... See more

What is the best game mode and why is it Mass Hysteria on Ghostbusters?

Seriously though, this is one of our favorites hands down. Or, hands crossed. Once you collect 100 ghosts the game will automatically start the mode and your flippers are reversed; right button activates the left flipper and visa-versa. You can TRY to reconfigure your brain (good luck) but the popular strategy is to switch your arms as demonstrated by Blaine here.

This kicks off a multi ball mode where ... See more

Okay - you know when you randomly open up the fridge on a Sunday morning and one of your cool friends left behind some amazingly delicious beer that is 100% fair game to drink because, well, possession is 9/10ths? Basically that's what happened with this keg of Barrel Theory Police the Sauce . I don't even know how it got here, and I'm not about to ask.

Tapped fresh this morning so come jam on this 7% hazy IPA that our homies at BT brewed with Citra and Simcoe hops.

You asked - we delivered. Due to popular demand, White Water is back!

Zach busted his ass over the last few weeks to give this '93 Williams icon a well-deserved refresh and it plays SUPER nice. Come stuff your quarters in the slots as soon as we open at 2pm today 🎮

And if you look close, Thanos be gone (for now). Look for him to make a comeback when we move. (FWIW the vote wasn't even all that close so we don't feel bad...)... See more

We heard pretty loud and clear that you all miss Whitewater, and believe it or not we care about making you happy. So here it is in the shop right now getting spruced up this #fixitfriday ahead of its return next week.

In addition to cleaning (look at that orbit, yeesh) Zach has got the playfield apart for some maintenance on Bigfoot and a few other tweaks we didn't get to last time it was here. It's going to play just as nice as you remember, and we love the passion in the... See more

Normally we save the nerdy pin tech stuff for #fixitfriday, but we have something special to share tomorrow so you get a serving of #pintechthursday instead.

Trolls. Love 'em or hate 'em they bring a lot of personality to Medieval Madness. 'Ol Lefty (we need to seriously do a poll to name these) was giving our players some grief over the last few days, constantly defying pinballs to the face regardless of the velocity. "The Hardest Choices Require The Strongest Wills" Sorry, Congo fans... Thanos won this round (but only the hair of his chinny chin chin). Don't fret, just like in real life it'll be back!

Come sink your teeth into Dracula! This 1993 Williams machine is based off the Bram Stoker's Dracula movie released the year prior. It has a couple of really unique features for its time, including the crowd-favorite Mist Multiball. If you've never seen this before it's pretty rad - magnets... See more Decision time again - Which one goes?

We need to make room for Dracula, so do we take out Avengers or Congo? Avengers was one of our most popular games for a while but it seems like it's fallen out of favor for most of you based on coin drop. Congo is another 90's B movie, and do we really need TWO machines in that theme at the same time? Help us decide in the comments below!...

NEW GAME DROP!

Thanks for all your votes and comments last week. It was a close one (some of you are REALLY into Whitewater - wow), but Dracula won out for the next game and you'll see it possibly as soon as Thursday!

And for you Whitewater fans, don't fret... We hear you. See more You're looking at the new home of TILT Pinball Bar*: The building formerly occupied by the Minneapolis icon known as Liquor Lyles.

Taking over this space is something of a bucket list for us. TILT was born in Minneapolis and to have the chance to bring this building back to life is incredibly humbling.

We've learned a lot since TILT first opened in April of 2017, and this move gives us the chance to deliver on many of the things you've asked of us since... See more

HELP US CHOOSE!

Which of these two 1993 Williams classics do you want us to bring in to TILT next week? Whitewater or Bram Stoker's Dracula?

We sure pissed a lot of you off when we pulled Whitewater last year, but we've also never had Dracula out for you to play. So which is it? We'll combine the results of this tread with our story on IG (you follow us on IG, RIGHT??) and let you decide!... See more

This week's #fixitfriday has our lead tech, Zach, installing a new flipper bat on 8-Ball Deluxe yesterday afternoon.

We've talked about flipper mech rebuilds in the past, but sometimes the flippers themselves just straight up break where the shaft meets the plastic. You can tell this has happened (or is about to happen) because you may see the flipper move, but it's very weak or might not be moving all the way. If you experience this, let a member of our staff know right aw... See more

WWF Royal Rumble is here! This 1994 Data East wide body is a fan favorite with a huge variety of shots, hilarious callouts (OH YEEEAH), a fun upper playfield, and a blast of nostalgia right in your face.

We picked up this particular game up at the Texas Pinball Festival earlier this year and not only was it in great condition, but had a prototype translite and a brand new cabinet wrap (which unfortunately is hidden between CCR and Congo at the moment). We really didn't have... See more #fixitfriday is an update on Future Spa!

Last time you saw this playfield was a few weeks ago when we triggered a few folks by sanding down the amazing original artwork. This was for good reason, however - as yesterday we installed the Playfield Hardtop from Outside Edge Products.

While we hand-paint a lot of our restorations, Future Spa was unfortunately too far gone to bring back to the condition we wanted. Hardtops are a great alternative to purchasing a new playfield an... See more

What in the hell(house) have you all been doing to poor Deadpool? We know he talks a lot of smack and listens to the rap musics but still...

Just kidding - It was only a matter of time before the scoop finally bit the dust, considering it is a very abused part of the game and endures a lot of physical shock not only due to the balls but the coil attached to it as well.

But just like Deadpool himself, the scoop is immortal and got some self-healing today with a little help f... See more

Sunday might have been one of the nicest summer days here in Minneapolis so we expected a low turnout for the monthly tournament. Boy were we wrong! Turns out 61 of you cool cats wanted to get your flip on and we are all warm and fuzzy you chose to spend your afternoon with us. ❤️

The battle came down to a final bout pairing Mark Larson against Kim Hoffart on the ever-brutal Ironman, with Mark taking the W for the overall win. Congrats to our top 4 and for everyone else who... See more Today's #fixitfriday is something you just don't see very often unless your games get a LOT of plays each week: Actual destruction!

On the left we have Theater of Magic which as been working so hard that the flipper bat just decided to yeet itself down the drain. On the right, Attack from Mars where the flipper bracket that holds the entire assembly cracked and broke right where the coil stop mounts.

These are all relatively easy repairs, thankfully inexpensive parts, and ... See more Another great women's tournament last week! [ed note: sorry for the delay we got distracted with Toy Story showing up early]

We had 15 players join us for the June tournament, and a surprise winner! After 8 rounds, a newcomer to the cities from Portland (but clearly not a newcomer to pinball), Whitney Lindaas, took first place, winning against Krista Larson on Rick & Morty. Lisa McGrath had a strong showing throughout the tournament and took third.

Got a few DM's over the last week asking for status on Centaur, so here's the latest: Our good friend Bryan Kelly has wrapped up the playfield swap for us and the glass is back on!

We went with a CPR (Classic Playfield Reproductions) playfield this time around as what we had previously in the machine was showing lots of wear from heavy use over the years. We're really stoked on how Okay, last reminder!

PLEASE show up before 12pm tomorrow if you are playing in the tournament. It's very important that we start on time. Make sure if you haven't played in a Flip Frenzy format tournament you take a moment to check our our post from yesterday on the details. There ARE IFPA points up for grabs in case that wasn't clear from earlier posts.

Otherwise if you want to just come hang out or better yet make a donation to Project Pinball that's cool, too!... See more

HOLY S*%T!! STOP SCROLLING AND READ THIS QUICK

We had some amazing news come across our inbox today: Turns out the Jamf Nation Global Foundation (the philanthropic arm of local Jamf Software) caught wind of our charity event and donated FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS towards Project Pinball.

There are a lot of Jamf employees that hang out at TILT, and we're truly humbled to see such an amazing contribution to an amazing cause. ... See more

Okay pinheads... Today's What the Pin Wednesday is cranked up to expert mode.

This is a before and after of a playfield we're working on that is getting a full LED conversion (none of those lame sockets, either). Can you guess the game based solely on this image? No boards, no logos, no hints this time. Whatcha got?

Three things of note for #techthursday (yes we keep making these up):

To start, Rudy has been looking a little rough lately. Zach is performing brain surgery and doing a little facial reconstruction so he looks marginally less freakish (rumor has it Rudy was scaring the children, not Zach).

Also spent some time getting Meteor cleaned up in advance of the charity tournament coming up next weekend. You're likely going to see Meteor AND another classic favorite on the floor al... See more

It's time for What the Pin Wednesday! (Something we just pulled out of thin air because we have a lot of projects goin' on and its a fun way to share 🤪)

We'll start with an easy one - can you guess which of our machines is being sent out for some time at the pinball spa?

Godzilla got a code update today, and it adds a GREAT new mini-wizard mode for Mechagodzilla 🐉

In order to activate, you need to score a super jackpot during Mechagodzilla mode (Super jackpot is the tail whip shot). Once you do, there are 4 different stages of this mode and they are FLIP LIMITED which means you get a certain number of flips to accomplish a goal. Draining a ball counts as 6 flips so choose your shots carefully!

Expecting some mega scores from this mode, let ... See more

Thank you. Seriously. To everyone reading this post right now; we truly appreciate you.

Yesterday was incredible. We're honored that so many of you turned out to help us celebrate 5 years. It was great to hear just how special our humble little pinball bar has become. We heard from folks that were there opening day, regulars who come 5-7 times a week, and even the new folks who just saw a post about a party and showed up. Some of you called TILT your "cheers". Others said it... See more

Was just at Tilt last weekend from out of town. It's been a while (pre-Covid) LOVE and miss the old Cow Poke table that was in the far back corner. It was the first thing I made a bee-line for and it was MIA.

Pop bumper's need love, too!

They don't get rebuilt as often as our flippers but once the 'POP' becomes more of a 'pip' it's time for some TLC.

What you see here are the main parts under the playfield of the rear pop bumper on Avengers: Infinity Quest. Just like a regular flipper, it has a coil that activates the plunger, which is connected to the ring above the playfield using a yoke. (The ring is what shoots your ball off in some random-ass direction.)... See more

You voted with your quarters, and the winner was clear: Godzilla dominated our March Pinball Madness tournament! Congo made a good effort but was no match for the giant lizard.

Because you voted, GODZILLA IS ON FREE PLAY MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY! We've also reset the high scores in order to crown a new grand champ. Have at it!

In our opinion, nothing is better than unboxing a brand new pinball machine. This is something that we get to do a lot here at TILT and wanted to share a bit of what the experience is like. There's a lot more to it than simply taking it out of the box and turning it on! Ride along for the delivery of Cactus Canyon back in February, taking the multi-hour process and grinding it down to 60 seconds (at 8x speed) to give you an idea of how we get a new machine ready for your quart... Here we go! It's championship week here at TILT, and as we expected the two titans are battling it out for free play!

It's Godzilla vs Congo (they really should make a movie about this) and both of these games dominated each round. They're so close that this is going to be a nail-biter.

Right now there are only 20 points separating the top 10 in each bracket, which means it's still anyone's victory at this point.

Reminder in looking at scores that your lowest score (or dropped week) is removed from your total on Matchplay, so check the Result column, not the Total. ... See more

It's an insider connected Stern Spike game, likely Godzilla LE or Rush LE. I'm sure there's a more definitive way to tell between the two, but I'd guess Godzilla based on the coil sleeve wear.

Wonder why the games @tiltpinballbar play so well? It's thanks to the guy you see in the background - Zach. Zach has been with us since long before we opened back in 2017, and is here 6 days a week in the mornings to make sure our games are running perfect. Whether he's fixing something simple like a broken drop target, or full on welding a bracket back together, the guy is a legend. If you may have completely forgot that AC/DC has a lower playfield with its own set of flippers and targets - we don't blame you. While each game gets a good playfield cleaning once a week we haven't removed this cover for a while and - well - we're a little embarrassed about to how filthy this got.

GODZILLA HAS POWERUPS NOW!

There is a monster of a code update for Godzilla waiting for you to try out today, adding a whole new level of scoring and points with powerups for the big lizard himself.

The screen will now show you Godzilla's power meter, and there will be a yellow arrow at the scoop to let you know when to collect. There are sooooo many different levels and bonuses that we can't list them here - but you can check out the full release notes on Stern's site. See more

We're coming down to the final rounds! We know some of you are going to be upset, but Twilight Zone was out with a torn achilles on Saturday and that cost it the victory against Avengers.

On the flip side - Congo is absolutely DOMINATING and it should make for an interesting final round.

Speaking of final rounds, we are going to completely ignore playoff rules and add a late player to the mix here next week. See more

To be clear, this was not a single player's doing! Components fail, it happens. There was both a physical and code related issue that were independently causing balls to get stuck, and a lineup of frustrated players that wanted to keep their games going. Much nudging and shaking was involved and this was likely cumulative. Do that eno... See more Rudy's Nightmare just got power for the first time since we started this upgrade project, and this means we are really close to completion.

Here you can see the playfield connected to the back box for some tests and tweaks under the master care of Bryan Kelly (his shop makes for much better pictures), and might even be ready for you to play hopefully this week!... See more It's pinball madness at TILT this month!

Now that our game lineup has stabilized (heh, maybe) we're going to try something we haven't done before, and let YOU decide which game is the best - based on raw play count. That's right, VOTE WITH YOUR QUARTERS.

Each week we'll take the play totals from each game, and the winner from each pairing moves on to the next round. The finals will be a 3-way battle for domination with the winning game being on FREE PLAY for a week.... See more

There was No Time to Stand Still during last night's official Rush launch party! We Lost count of how many people Found their Way to get in some games on both Pro and LE, with some coming Here Again to join the 54 players in our monthly tournament.

In the End it was David Marcis taking the win, dishing out Lessons to Nate Reardon, Tony Midtling, and Jim Hartley. But it wasn't Something for Nothing as all 4 players got cash plus some great swag from Stern Pinball. We know fo... See more

Pairs well with the TWO new games that just came in this week

#firstfriday double update on Congo and Funhouse (Rudy's Nightmare):

Congo is starting to assume its final form, with the playfield assembly almost complete and full of shiny new pieces (so much gloss!).

Meanwhile work continues on Funhouse, with a step in the process that might trigger some people... Yes, we took a sander to the cabinet. Some people might consider this blasphemous but it was a necessary stage as Rudy's Nightmare comes with all new cabinet artwork in the future. See more

Congo update!

Progress continues on the restoration of our 1995 Williams Congo. Who doesn't love a freshly lacquered playfield? Also the cabinet got a good cleaning (it's gross what you find in a 27 year old game) and a fresh coat of paint on the inside. The wiring harness isn't as bad as it looks but will still need a good soaking before its ready to be reinstalled.

More pictures to come, as repopulation of the playfield is about to begin. We hope you are excited as we are... See more

This week's #fixitfriday is brought to you by our lead tech, Zach .

Last night one of the wire ramps broke on our Stern Mandalorian LE, so Zach brought in the welder, set up a makeshift welding table (using the top of a coin box!), and went to work. Now we've got a solid ramp again and Mando is back in business.

Our games get an entire lifetime of home use plays in just a few weeks so an occasional part failure is expected. Thankfully metal parts don't fail that often but ... See more

Let's talk about balls for a minute, and consider this a PSA for regular inspection of your balls.

Damaged balls are absolute murder on playfields and accelerate the breakdown of anything they touch (coils, targets, rubbers, ramps, etc.)

Another morning, another project. This time it's repairing a broken pop bumper on our Willy Wonka from Jersey Jack Pinball. Unfortunately the broken part meant disassembling about a quarter of the playfield to replace it, but gave us an excuse to clean up part of the game we can't normally access and polish up the ramps and plastics back there to make the whole game shine again. #pinball #pintech #playpinballhere #onlythebestforyou #willywonka #cleanit #jerseyjackpinball #mplspinball

Ever played a game where the flippers felt slow/sticky/weak/lame and were actually a legitimate excuse for missing your shots? It was probably the result of one or all of the parts you see here.

We deep inspect each game weekly (sometimes more often depending on player feedback), and replace parts as needed. Believe it or not, it's rarely a coil that goes bad so we do regular maintenance on these wear parts to prevent a bigger problem. The last photo of taking the entire fl...

Good news everyone! We are reopening Monday the 27th with temporary hours of 4pm-12am. Kitchen is open, too!

The staff covering these shifts have had multiple negative tests, and will be wearing masks as an extra precaution. While we will not be requiring masks for our patrons, they are strongly encouraged while you aren't actively eating or drinking. (We haven't found a mask that accommodates a hotdog - yet....)

We look forward to seeing you soon! ... See more

If you have been to TILT in the last 5 days, we strongly encourage you to get tested. There is a list of rapid test sites with expanded hours available on the MN Dept of Health site here: ... See more

We have recently learned that indeed a few of our staff members have tested positive for COVID. We closed yesterday as a precaution, and as we have learned of positive test results coming back we will be closed until further notice

If you have been to TILT in the last 5 days, we strongly encourage you to get tested.

This is not the news we wanted to share right before the holiday, but wanted to let you know as soon as we had confirmation.

FINAL ROUND OF WINTER LEAGUE 7PM TONIGHT

Come cheer on (or hassle) or dethrone your favorite people as we hit the last battle of our winter league. 1st place is still up for grabs in rec and our competitive league has pretty much a 3 way tie for first. It's gonna be a close one!

Wow! On behalf of the entire crew at TILT we just gotta say THANK YOU for helping make our first Toys for Taps event a huge success. We are truly humbled to have such great customers/patrons/players/fans and we're incredibly proud of the generosity and community displayed last night in what turned out to be an epic evening.

Thanks to you, the raffle raised almost $800 in cash, and we ran out of room to store all the toys during the night and had to stash things in the kitch... See more Sure is satisfying to see the entire fleet all cleaned up and ready for Winter League Round 5 tonight!

We've got a tight battle in both our brackets; Rec bracket has only 20 points separating the top 7, and competitive bracket has <10 points across the top 5 with a current three-way tie for third.

Will we see a breakaway winner or do you think it'll come down to the final game next week? Will Rec league turn into a battle of the Matthews? Who is your favorite for this seas... See more Happy Friday, pinheads! We've been hearing reports that the Captain Marvel ramp on Avengers Infinity Quest has been giving people some grief (and according to half of the internet, it's not just you). So we installed a mod to keep the ball flowing butter smooth as well as tweaked the opto sensor. We open at 2pm today, so let us know in the comments if this helps you get your extra ball or binary mode easier to get!

Godzilla LE has landed at TILT! Come play the first one in the Twin Cities!

If you liked Godzilla Pro, you're going to love the LE version. Battle Mechagodzilla, destroy the bridge, and collapse the Drake building. While you're waiting, check out the incredible matte and foil cabinet art that really makes this game stand out.

And fun fact - there was a shipping error that prevented this from leaving the Stern factory yesterday so we sent one of our employees out to go pick... See more

This weekend is shaping up to be quite special... There is a possibility of not one but TWO new machines arriving at TILT. What could they be? What do YOU most want to play this weekend?

(Have no fear, Attack from Mars isn't going anywhere we just blanked it out for this teaser photo...)

#Godzilla got a code update today (0.79), and one of the standout fixes is you can now hit both flipper buttons to drop the ball on a Magna Grab! No more waiting for the animation to end! Plus, all timers are now paused during magnet holds in case you DO want to watch the animations.

If you want to hardcore nerd out on the other changes, you can read about the full update on Stern's site:

Apologies to some who noticed a charge on their credit cards from Tilt recently.

There was a processing error in October and a batch of credit card purchases never went through.

It was just processed this week. Please know this was not a double charge. If you look back to October, your card was not charged then. Thank you and we look forward to serving you soon.

Modist Brewing Company Death Sauce Painkiller Tiki Sour... bizarre name yet oddly delicious. Join us on our last day (until we are able to open back up) and get it 2-4-1! #tgif #beerme

CHILL STATE
DDH HAZY IPA

Fair State Brewing Cooperative is a local brewery in Minneapolis, MN. We are a family-owned and operated brewery. We are proud to be a part of the local beer community. We are also a member of the Minnesota Brewers Association.

TASTING NOTES
Bright citrusy hoppy, and refreshing. Good balance of acid and sweetness.

In the video, all of the machines were on. Is that just pinball production? In other words, does one call to find out if TMNT going to be available on a given day?

That's the walk I take every time I go to Tilt. If you were open for carry out I'd probably drive all the way up from Farmington just to get a Cubano.

To answer questions on tokens:

They have no cash value. We will not be buying them back. If you have an abundance of them, get in by December 31 to use them up! With the amount of money we spend on tokens each year, we would rather put that into new and different machines for you to enjoy. We hope you understand this decision and continue to enjoy Tilt as much as we enjoy having you!

January 1 games will be $0.50/play, with the exception of Big Lebowski.
